Concert Polka.

Einleitung.

Zither.

Hans Kullmann Op. 385.

Music for the introduction and Zither part. The introduction starts with a forte dynamic (f) in 2/4 time. The Zither part consists of six measures of eighth-note patterns. The lyrics "ad li bi tum" are written below the notes. The key signature changes from B-flat major to F major at the end of the introduction.

Continuation of the Zither part, featuring eighth-note patterns in 2/4 time. The key signature remains B-flat major throughout this section.

S. Polka.

Main Polka section in 2/4 time. It includes two measures of eighth-note patterns followed by a section of sixteenth-note patterns. Dynamics include fz (fortissimo), mf (mezzo-forte), and F (forte). The section ends with a measure of eighth-note patterns labeled "C". A instruction "Für geübte Spieler" (For advanced players) is placed above the music.

eine Octave höher.

Higher Octave section, indicated by "eine Octave höher". The music consists of eighth-note patterns in 2/4 time. Dynamics include Du.G (duo), Au.D (au de), and F (forte).

Final section of the Polka. It features eighth-note patterns in 2/4 time. Dynamics include Fine, f (forte), and DS (Duo) with a bracket over the next section. AS (A duet) is also marked. The section ends with a measure of eighth-note patterns labeled "G".

Trio section in 3/4 time, indicated by a sharp key signature. It consists of eighth-note patterns. Dynamics include f (forte) and a dynamic marking "br" (brilliant).
